

First Steps into Employment

Canary Wharf Group, in partnership with One Housing Association, will be delivering an employability programme for young people aged 16-24 who are keen to improve their career prospects through workshops with a network of professionals with different job roles at Canary Wharf Group.

There will be a total of 6 workshops, lasting an hour each, delivered between May and August 2021. Sessions will be hosted virtually and potentially in person at One Canada Square.

Workshops will cover areas such as:

- CV support
- Interview skills
- Job applications
- Networking with professionals
